

VINE CITY • ENGLISH AVE.
EARTH DAY FESTIVAL
— 2019 —

Media Advisory

Lance@rmg-eco.com

404 454 8830

2019 Vine City English Ave Earth Day Festival and Trees Atlanta pay tribute to the late Atlanta City Councilman Ivory L. Young Jr.

Plantings Trees during Vine City Earth Day Festival in honor of Ivory Young Jr.

Who: 2019 Honorary Co-Chairs: Vine City English Ave Earth Day Festival
Antioch Baptist Church North Pastor Kenneth Alexander &
Hollis Innovation Academy Principal : D: Diamond (Jack) Ford

What: One of the few Earth Day Festivals held in an African American community in AMERICA. National Black and Latino Council – Sustainability Community Development Initiative for underserved communities created eco community engagement event. Now celebrating our 3rd annual Vine City English Avenue Earth Day Festival Which Ivory Young Co-Chaired last year. This is a FREE COMMUNITY EVENT. Free plants, vegetables, lcd lights, solar panel display, green jobs, urban gardens, water conservation education, recycling programs. plus, this year we will have an eco-egg hunts.

- Special Tree Planting Tribute by Atlanta City Council, Trees of Atlanta, and Vine City English Avenue Community will plant several trees' in late Atlanta City Councilmen Ivory Young Jr.

When: Saturday, April 20, 2019 11 am – 6: pm

1 PM Ivory Young Jr Tree Planting Ceremony (Where your best spring hat)

3: PM Community eco-Easter Egg Hunt

Where: Vine City Park: Magnolia St. NW Atlanta. GA 30314

Why: To pay tribute to former Atlanta City Councilman Ivory Young Jr. & continue to serve Vine City English Ave.

2019 Vine City English Avenue Earth Day Festival Co-Chairs

Dr. Diamond (JACK) Ford – Principal Hollis Innovation Academy

Rev. Kenneth Alexander – Antioch Baptist Church North

Georgia House Representative Mable Thomas

