Tomochichi Peace Column

Tomochichi and his nephew Toonahowi, engraving by John Faber jr., made around 1734-1735

“The Peace Column”, above, is dedicated to Georgias co-founder Chief Tomo Chi Chi who in 1733 is best known for orchestrating the peaceful co-habitation with English Settlers including General James Oglethorpe with the indigenous Creek Indian of Georgia. The 100.00 Ft. tall column is outfitted with an elevator and emergency stairs leading to an observation deck for great views of the park, downtown Atlanta and the Westside. Crowned at the top of the column is a statue of Chief Tomo Chi Chi.
