DOVEY JOHNSON ROUNDTREE SOCIETY PLEDGE FORM

About the Roundtree Society

When you contribute to the Westside Future Fund, you contribute to the work of breaking down long-standing barriers to economic mobility and equity. It is work that we carry on from civil rights leaders who dedicated their lives to advancing equity and justice. One such courageous activist is Dovey Mae Johnson Roundtree.

The Dovey Johnson Roundtree Society is comprised of philanthropists who, through generous contributions, are shaping the equitable revitalization of Atlanta's Historic Westside. The Westside was once a thriving mixed-income community and home to notable leaders of the American Civil Rights movement. Today, 52% of Westside residents live below the poverty line and 40% of all housing is vacant. By joining the Roundtree Society, you can play a significant role in creating a community Dr. King would once again be proud to call home.

Membership is open to individuals, couples, family foundations and privately held companies contributing $1,000-$9,999 in a calendar year. You can designate your gift for a specific program, or you can make it unrestricted for use in the area of greatest need.

Transforming Tomorrow, Today

Your generosity is essential in supporting the life-changing work to create an ecosystem which will disrupt the cycle of poverty. Westside Future Fund is leveraging a cross-section of business, government, philanthropy, and community partnerships to revitalize the Historic Westside and become a model throughout the nation. Your investment will help us to:

- Deliver economic mobility through high quality, affordable rental housing, and pathways to home ownership for low-income residents.
- Advance excellence in cradle-to-career education through academic support and comprehensive wrap-around services.
- Support local business and empower minority entrepreneurs to help drive the Westside's economic development.

Many employers will match charitable donations made by employees, spouses of employees, directors, or retirees. Although the matched portion does not qualify for membership to the Roundtree Society, it can double or even triple your contribution.
