Our Featured Participants

Tameka Bell

Director of Special Projects at Ebenezer Baptist Church

Tameka Bell is the Director of Special Projects at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta. A nationally recognized communications and organizing leader, she brings more than 20 years of experience at the intersection of faith, storytelling, and justice-centered campaigns.

Tameka has led communications and strategy for national movements, including the March for Black Women and Let My People Vote, a campaign that helped restore voting rights to 1.4 million returning citizens in Florida. She is also a seasoned trainer and facilitator who has worked with more than 1,000 grassroots, clergy, and nonprofit leaders nationwide, helping faith communities develop moral narrative, public voice, and organizing power.

In addition to her professional leadership, Tameka is a proud Home on the Westside homebuyer, having worked with On the Rise Financial Center, and she continues to give back through outreach work with the AUC Center in partnership with Ebenezer Baptist Church.

Tameka Askew

Director of Home on the Westside, Westside Future Fund

Tameka L. Askew joined the Westside Future team in March of 2022, bringing over 20+ years of wealth, knowledge, and experience in community relations, youth and adult program development, counseling, and housing stabilization for children, adolescents, and families from the non-profit sector. Tameka has worked in the Westside footprint (30314 and 30318) for four years. Tameka is very knowledgeable of the community; she is an advocate for building the area among neighborhood residents. Previously, she worked at On the Rise Financial Center as a financial coach. Tameka also worked at CHRIS 180 as a housing Stability case manager at the At Promise Center and as a program manager of the Westside Empowerment Center and Westside Connect. Tameka earned a bachelor's in social work from Jacksonville State University and a master's in social work from the University of Alabama Tuscaloosa, focusing on children, adolescents, and families. Tameka is also a certified life coach.

Tameka has a passion for advocating for the population with an unheard voice. Tameka is impassioned about having adequate and affordable housing for the residents of the Westside community, sufficient resources, and serving the homeless population. Tameka is working daily to find and develop solutions to meet the needs of the community.

Rachel Carey

Chief Real Estate Officer, Westside Future Fund

Rachel Carey joined Westside Future Fund in May of 2018. As VP of Real Estate Finance, she manages WFF's affordable housing pipeline and capital structure. Rachel's background in affordable housing finance and leveraging public funds in the form of capital and operating subsidies helps advance the public-private partnership core to Westside Future Fund. WFF currently owns and operates more than 180 units of affordable rental housing and is actively developing both multifamily apartments and single-family homes in Atlanta's historic westside neighborhoods, with a laser focus on community retention of legacy residents. WFF's mission is to create a community Dr. King would be proud to call home.

Our Featured Participants

Jon Ingram

Chief Development Officer, Westside Future Fund

Jon Ingram serves as Chief Development Officer at Westside Future Fund, where he leads a team of dedicated professionals in securing funding and resources focused on supporting compassionate community redevelopment throughout Atlanta's historic Westside neighborhoods.

An Atlanta native, Jon began his professional career in 2013 with the Atlanta Area Council, Boy Scouts of America where he developed a passion and expertise in nonprofit management, fundraising, program development and implementation, as well as Board and Community Development. In 2022, Jon began serving as Director of Corporate Relations at the Woodruff Arts Center, where he was responsible for building strategic relationships with corporate partners, and responsible for developing brand strength externally for the Arts Center.

Throughout his career, Jon has served on numerous community boards focused on youth development, the arts, community and civic development. Additionally, Jon is a recipient of the Cobb Chamber of Commerce's Next Generation Award, as well as the Columbus State University's Young Alumni Award; awards that recognize Young Professional leaders for their professional success and for their community impact throughout the community.

Jon is a 2011 graduate of Columbus State University and is a graduate of the Leadership Cobb class of 2020, as well as the LEAD Atlanta class of 2024. Jon enjoys spending time with his Wife and serves as a Middle School Small Group leader for boys and Men's Small Group leader at Buckhead Church, where he attends.

John Ahmann

President & CEO, Westside Future Fund

For more than 25 years, John Ahmann has been driven to improve how communities and institutions function in Atlanta. From his early days working in Washington, D.C., to his positions with private, governmental, and organizational entities in the Atlanta area — including his eight years as an elected school board official in Decatur — he has focused his energy on solving the big problems whose resolutions can ultimately change Atlanta's trajectory and contribution to racial equity.

He has worked primarily behind the scenes, bringing together diverse stakeholders and managing initiatives to fruition. He has been involved in some of the region's most important public policy initiatives and cross-sector collaborations. Along the way, John has built a vast network of individuals impacting Atlanta and its future.

A native son of Atlanta, John is currently the President & CEO of the Westside Future Fund (WFF). WFF was launched by the Atlanta Committee for Progress (ACP) in December 2014, with the strong leadership support of former Atlanta Mayor Kasim Reed. The nonprofit organization's mission is to advance a compassionate approach to neighborhood revitalization that creates a diverse, mixed-income community, improves the quality of life for current and future residents, and elevates the Historic Westside's unique history and culture. Through its flagship program, Home on the Westside, WFF helps neighbors stay in the place they love by providing access to high-quality housing and educational support, strengthening the city we call home.

John has been recognized for his work by receiving the following awards: Georgia Trend's 100 Most Influential Georgians for 2025 and 2024, 2020 and 2021 Atlanta Magazine's Atlanta's 500 Most

VISION

A community Dr. King would be proud to call home.

MISSION

To advance a compassionate approach to neighborhood revitalization that creates a diverse, mixed-income community, improves the quality of life for current and future residents and elevates the Historic Westside's unique history and culture.

VALUES

Do with the Community, not to the Community

We know that residents are the real experts on the challenges in their community. Therefore, we learn from residents and involve them in all we do.

Be Compassionate

We meet residents where they are in a spirit of empathy and respect.

Have Integrity in Everything

We stand behind all we say and do. We are open, honest, and courageous.

Be Creative

We bring high energy and fresh ideas to tackling the long-standing challenges on the Westside. We're dedicated to trying different approaches to get different results.

Deliver Results

We're committed to driving transformation in the long term, with a focus on measurable outcomes today.

Meet the Westside Future Fund.

WHY THE WESTSIDE?

The Westside is an important part of Atlanta's past, present and future. These historic neighborhoods played a defining role in the American civil rights movement and is the place some of its most iconic leaders called home, like Ambassador Andrew Young, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Dorothy Bolden, founder of the National Domestic Worker's Union of America. The Westside also bears the scars of policies that led to depopulation and left those who stayed without economic opportunity. Today, the Westside Future Fund is working to change that and make it a model of racial equity and economic justice. The result will be a better Atlanta where everyone on the Westside has access to the resources they need to thrive.

OUR MISSION

To advance a compassionate approach to neighborhood revitalization that creates a diverse, mixed-income community, improves the quality of life for current and future residents, and elevates the Historic Westside's unique history and culture.

THE HEART OF THE WESTSIDE

We focus on five neighborhoods in Atlanta's Historic Westside: Vine City, English Avenue, Ashview Heights, Atlanta University Center and Just Us. Long underserved and underfunded due to systemic racism, the Westside suffered from the lack of essential services, food deserts, neglected infrastructure and blight. Today, more than half of its residents live below the poverty line, and 40% of all housing is vacant. Only 79% of the population can read above the third-grade level. That is why our mission is to open access to resources and potential through the cornerstones of homeownership and education.

Definition of Legacy Resident: Anyone residing on the Westside prior to 2017 as well as those with meaningful ties to the Westside including former colleges and universities, church congregants and others.

WHAT DOES THE WESTSIDE FUTURE FUND DO?

The Westside Future Fund is a nonprofit organization with a mission to improve the lives of current and future Westside residents. Through our flagship program, Home on the Westside, we help our neighbors live in the place they love through access to high-quality housing and educational support, strengthening the city we call home.

EDUCATION

MORE WAYS TO BE AT HOME ON THE WESTSIDE

We ensure the availability of affordable, quality housing in ways that are financially attainable for long-time residents of the Westside or those connected to the neighborhood. That includes support to rent, buy or retain a home with a unique focus on community retention.

ACCESS TO CRADLE-TO-CAREER EDUCATION

Education is a cornerstone of better futures and prosperity. Investment in these foundational opportunities starts with quality early childhood education and our partnership with Atlanta Public Schools in support of the elementary, middle and secondary schools that make up the Booker T. Washington Cluster. It continues through adult skill training and support of Westside entrepreneurs. Westside residents deserve the resources that support families and lead to quality employment opportunities.

CHAMPIONING A SAFE & HEALTHY NEIGHBORHOOD

Collaborating with other organizations working on the Westside, we advocate for an environment where residents can thrive. That means teaming up to improve access to healthcare and overall wellbeing with greenspace, walkability, and safety. It's contributing to residents' sense of security by mitigating social factors that impact crime rates.

We also stand shoulder-to-shoulder with those who care about the Westside — residents, community groups, police officers, schools, business owners, developers, donors, and investors — and lend our voice to the calls for change today and a better future tomorrow.

We can stop the unchecked gentrification that displaces legacy residents of the Westside and tears the social fabric of Atlanta. Instead, we want to ensure they benefit from the rising tide of economic opportunity, rather than being swept away by it. Together, we can realize the vision of the courageous American civil rights leaders who called the Westside home: a thriving mixed-income community that models what it means to be a world-class city embracing racial and economic justice.

CONTRIBUTE TO ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY IN ATLANTA

The long-term effects of underserved neighborhoods and generational poverty have limited opportunity on the Westside, and the enormity of the problem may seem overwhelming. Together we can break down barriers and build something better. We can connect legacy residents to resources that make homeownership possible. And, in turn, that homeownership can fuel transformational and generational change for them and their families.

Home is more than a house, so when you contribute to Home on the Westside, you're also investing in the community.

That means strengthening educational opportunity from cradle to career and advocating for the safety, security, and wellness of all our residents. It's a holistic approach to neighborhood revitalization.

Westside Future Fund's Home on the Westside program is uniquely built to realize this model. We represent a convergence of experience, expertise and influence from the worlds of business, education, government, and philanthropy, as well as the knowledge, connections and creativity needed to address the complex issues facing the Westside. We also have the ability to leverage every $1 donated to Home on the Westside with $2 from the WFF Impact Fund, multiplying the impact of every contribution.

Revitalizing the Westside is not just something we can do; it is something we must do. Atlanta cannot forget those who built it. Get involved. Invest in real change. Make a better Atlanta at Home on the Westside.

THE WESTSIDE: Your home now... and for years to come

Creating the Beloved Community

The end is reconciliation; the end is redemption; the end is the creation of the Beloved Community. It is this type of spirit and this type of love that can transform opponents into friends. It is this type of understanding goodwill that will transform the deep gloom of the old age into the exuberant gladness of the new age. It is this love which will bring about miracles in the hearts of men.

Martin Luther King, Jr. from "Facing the Challenge of a New Age," 1956

The coining of the term, "beloved community" is credited to Josiah Royce (1855–1916), a Harvard professor, theologian, and philosopher, who taught at Harvard from the 1880s to 1910s.

Josiah Royce deemed the beloved community the "principle of all principles" and spoke of the beloved community as an ideal, separate from ordinary life, a spiritual community where all those "fully dedicated to the cause of loyalty, truth, and reality itself" were joined. Speaking from a distinctly Christian perspective, he stated that religious communities at their core should embody "the mystery of loving membership in a community." This participation was enacted through deep loyalty to a personal cause that one serves with "all [one's] might and soul and strength."

Royce wrote, "Find your own cause, your interesting, fascinating, personally engrossing cause; serve it with all [one's] might and soul and strength; but so choose your cause and so serve it, that thereby you show forth your loyalty to loyalty, so that because of your choice and service to your cause, there is a maximum of increase of loyalty among your fellow [human beings]."

Since you cannot find the universal and beloved community, create it.

Josiah Royce (1913)

One of Royce's students in the 1890s was W.E.B. Du Bois, who arrived in Atlanta in 1897 to establish a sociology program at Atlanta University and develop the university's curriculum. It is possible W.E.B. Du Bois and others could have discussed the idea of the "beloved community" and its embodiment in the Atlanta University Center and Vine City neighborhoods as early as Du Bois' arrival in Atlanta. Since the late 1860s, white and black educators, black students, and working class white and black residents had been living in the historic Westside.

Dr. King's mentor, Howard Thurman, was also a student of Royce and colleague of W.E.B. Du Bois. He used the term "beloved community" as an inspirational lens "to perceive [in the world] a harmony that transcends all diversities and in which diversity finds its richness and significance." He broadened the concept from Royce's specifically Christian orientation and emphasized the importance of truly integrated communities beyond legal integration and emphasized the importance of a radically nonexclusionary community.

During Thurman's lifetime, the historic Westside served as a nerve center of civil rights activism even as the effects of legal segregation remained in the community.

Community cannot for long feed on itself. It can only flourish with the coming of others from beyond, their unknown and undiscovered brothers and sisters.

Howard Thurman 1971

Dr. King takes the thinking of Royce and Thurman forward with his belief that we can "actualize the Beloved Community." Walter Fluker writes that the "beloved community" is Dr. King's "single, organizing principle of [his] life and thought."

Our goal is to create a beloved community, and this will require a qualitative change in our souls as well as a quantitative change in our lives.

Martin Luther King, Jr., 1966
